

The Professor flew from Paris to Egypt to visit the Pyramids at Giza.

It was as hot as an oven when he arrived.

“The Pyramids are very interesting indeed,” thought the Professor.

He was very glad he had his camera to take some photos.

For his next trip Professor Flumf flew to Thailand. It was long, long flight!

When he arrived he was very tired and went straight to his hotel.

As he went up the stairs to his room he thought to himself that something was missing.

Adding 'ing' or 'ed' to Verbs

The letters of ed and ing are called suffixes. They can be added to the end of verbs to change the meaning of the word. The sentences on the right are taken from the story. Add ed or ing to the words where needed.

Add ing to the words below. As there is a vowel before the last consonant you will have to double the consonant before adding ing.

swim _____

hum _____

shop _____

run _____

1. Professor Flumf lov_____ to travel.
2. He happily humm_____ to himself as he took his photos.
3. While rush_____ to get to the plane on time he left his camera in the taxi.
4. "Thank you so much!" puff_____ the Professor.
5. It was as hot as an oven when he arriv_____ .
6. As he went up the stairs to his room he thought to himself that something was miss_____ .
7. The next day Professor Flumf went swimm_____ .
8. One of the birds who liv_____ on the island flew along with him as he walk_____ .

Story Structure

Fill in the boxes below to complete the story structure.

Book title:

Author:

Characters

Who is the main character?

Who else is in the story?

Events

What happens in the story?

Setting

Where does the story take place?

Highlight

My favourite part of the story is